

The business of software engineering

Understanding how software get built

What does your company do?

How does it make money?

What role does your team have in relation to the business?

What role do you have in relation to the business?

Who are your users?

Who are your partners?
